SUPERVISION AGREEMENT

- An initial (free) meeting with a potential supervisee is 30 minutes.
- Thereafter sessions will be 1 or 1 ½ hours duration (to be agreed).
- Confidentiality is vital to the supervision relationship, and will only be breached if the supervisee discloses a situation where he / she or others may be at risk of harm (See GDPR agreement).
- I have regular supervision, where I raise any issues I have surrounding supervision work. You or your clients may be referred to in these confidential sessions.
- I abide by the B.A.C.P. Code of Ethics.
- Fees: - Trainees £30 for 1 hour, £45 for 1 ½ hours / Qualified counsellors £45 for 1 hour, £67.50 for 1 ½ hours.
- A cancellation fee of 50% of the normal fee will become payable if cancellation is made within 24 hours of the appointment.
- Supervisees agree to familiarise themselves with the BACP Ethical Framework guidance on supervision.

Agreeing a contract may seem a little official and impersonal, but boundaries such as those above can help to establish a firm framework within which to work; protecting both the supervisee and the supervisor from unclear and muddled situations arising from not formalising an agreement.

If you are in agreement with the above contract, kindly sign where indicated.
