GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) Policy Agreement Date of Document – June 2026

I take your privacy with regard to your personal data very seriously. Below outlines the data I collect & how I store it / sharing of your data / erasing of your data / your rights.

If you have any queries or concerns after reading this policy document, please let me know.

Data I collect:-

Name / Telephone number(s) / Email address / Course Details (for Students)

Data I hold and how I store it:-

- Paper - Contact sheet / Session notes kept for 6 years & then destroyed / Supervisor Agreement / GDPR Policy Agreement
- All kept in a locked cabinet
- Email / SMS - On my smartphone – fingerprint recognition & passcode protected
- On my computer – Protected by a firewall and antivirus software

Sharing of your Personal Data:-

- Supervision (a professional requirement)
Where I may take aspects of our work together – you will be referred to by first name only.
My supervisors are also GDPR compliant.
- Therapeutic Will
Shared with my Therapeutic Executor – in this case one of my supervisors.
This is so that you will be contacted in the event of my death; should you still be in supervision with me.
- Where I need to comply with a legal requirement.
- Where you request me to do so, i.e. a supporting letter to other professionals.
- Emergencies
 - If your health, or that of a client or those associated with a client is in jeopardy (provided I have your consent) I may share your contact information with an emergency healthcare service (e.g. Mental Health Crisis Team).
 - If I have become aware of you or your client's intent to cause harm to another person / organisation (e.g. terrorism), the law may require that I inform an authority without seeking your permission. In such a situation, the law may require that I share your or your client's personal information without your knowledge (known as: whistle-blowing).

Your Rights:-

You have a right of access to, rectification & * deletion of your records.

* Though I can decline whilst the information is needed for my competent practice.

You have a legal right to complain directly to me about how your data is handled. Your complaint will be responded to, without undue delay.
